Subject: English Curriculum Orientation

Dear Parents,

Greetings!!

In regard to the English curriculum, we would like to orient all the parents to some important improvements that we have made in the program for the coming academic year, in order to enhance student skills. Hence, an English Curriculum Orientation has been scheduled on 27th June 2015, Saturday.

The session will give you insights into our learning expectations from students as well as the content and teaching methodology of English at Redbricks School. Since there have been some modifications in the program this year, we urge all parents to attend the orientation even if you have attended an English orientation in the last year. It is necessary for atleast one parent to attend the same.

The orientation will be conducted by the Principals Mrs. Sutapa Mishra, Dr. Gargi Singh and our ELT Expert Consultant - Ms. Rupa Shah.

Ms. Rupa Shah is an ELT (English Language Teaching) Consultant, curriculum designer, materials writer and teacher trainer. She has as extensive prior English teaching and curriculum development experience in national as well as international board schools. She works with schools and state governments to enhance and strengthen the language curriculum and train teachers to use a more communicative and skill focussed pedagogy.
