It gives us immense pleasure to announce that Redbricks School is once again organising the “Read to Lead- Young Readers’ Conclave (2nd Edition)” this year on 16th and 17th December 2017.

Please note that interested students will be shortlisted for inter-school competitions in the upcoming week through in-house selection rounds. Only the shortlisted candidates will be representing the school on 16th December 2017 (Inter-school Competitions day).

On 17th of December, we have planned a wide range of activities for children and adults including expert workshops (pass and registration required), open for all sessions, bookstore, artscape, and much more. Please find enclosed the event booklet with the workshop schedule for your reference and passes using which you can register your child/yourself for the expert workshops. We are also happy to send you an additional booklet + 3 workshop registration passes, for sharing with your friends/family members who wish to participate in the event.

You can register for the workshops for your child/yourself/others either by filling the online registration form on the link- <http://www.redbricks-school.org/readtolead/registration.html>- or by filling the hard copy form (enclosed here) and submitting it to the class teacher. Kindly submit the form latest by 12th December 2017. For more passes for your friends/family, kindly contact the school counselor on +91-9979500003.

The closing event of Read to Lead 2017 is a live performance by Neeraj Arya’s Kabir Cafe - a band inspired by 15th century poet and saint Kabir. The performance is scheduled from 6 pm to 7.30 pm on 17th December. Limited passes are available for the performance and entry is by invitation only. We encourage you to attend the event with your child. You may also invite your friends/family members for the performance.

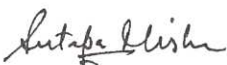

For availing the Kabir cafe passes, either submit the confirmation slip sent with this circular to the class teacher or you can collect the passes from Redbricks Satellite campus. Entry for the performance will not be provided without passes, so please ensure to get your child’s/your passes as soon as possible. Passes are limited and will be issued only upon request on first-come, first serve basis.

Kindly note:

- The school will remain closed on 16th December 2017, Saturday on occasion of the event.
- Attendance of students on 16th December:
 - ◆ Classes 1 to 3 and Class 10 - Optional
 - ◆ Classes 4 to 9 – Mandatory (as per given timings which will be informed later)
- For both the days transport facilities will be available between Satellite to Santej campus on scheduled times as mentioned in the event booklet. Students taking part on both the days will have a choice of whether to avail the transport facilitated by the school between Satellite and Santej, or come with their parents.
- A circular with all transport details and student timings for both the days will be sent to you shortly.
- 18th December, Monday will be a holiday for students (Classes 1-9).
- 23rd December, Saturday will be a working day in lieu of 18th December 2017.

Thanking You.

With warm regards,

Mrs. Sutapa Mishra

The PrincipalRedbricks School (Class 1 to 6)
