Subject: National Level Competition for Readers

Dear Parents,

To take forward the Library Reading Program of the School, we would like to share a National level competition, details of which are as follows:

The School library Association (SLA) , a National Premier professional body of Indian School Librarians launches two national level competitions to celebrate WBCD 2019 (World Book and Copyright Day) on April 23, 2019.

The competition for school children are listed below:

1. Reading Mascot for India

What: Design a mascot for India which inspires everyone to read.

2. Share your Story

What: Write a story and share it with the world

More information can be gathered from the website link:
