Dear Parents,

This is to share with you the updated information on Semester 2 examinations for Class 7 and Class 8 students. Due to COVID-19 pandemic, there has been a nationwide lock down till 14th April 2020. Therefore, we would like to share the decisions taken with regards to Semester 2 examinations, kindly find them below:

- Semester 2 examination of the following subjects will not be held:

Class 7	Class 8
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Physics• Hindi• Gujarati	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Geography• English Literature• Gujarati• ICT

- The scores of the above mentioned subjects for Semester 2 examinations will be calculated by taking a cumulative weighted value of the scores obtained by the student in his/her previously appeared tests and examinations ie. Cycle Test 1 to Cycle Test 4 and Semester 1 examinations.

Name of the Examination	Weighted Value that will be taken for calculating scores of Semester 2 examinations
Cycle test 1	10 %
Cycle test 2	10 %
Semester 1 Examinations	40 %
Cycle test 3	20 %
Cycle test 4	20 %

- For the subjects whose Semester 2 examination was conducted, actual scores obtained by the student will be used to calculate the cumulative weighted percentage.
- If a child has missed any subject of Semester 2 examinations due to medical reasons, he/she has to submit a medical certificate to the school counselor through email latest by 2nd April 2020, failing which the child will be marked as 'Absent'.
- The students of Class 8 will be promoted to Class 9 as per the school's promotion policy designed in accordance with the CISCE guidelines.

Thanking you for your continued support and cooperation.
